STATINTL -

Approved For Release 2001/03/04 : CIA-RDP80-016

7 March 1971

He is given free hand by his Government to disrupt the world. In turn, he gives Isis Government free hand to deny knowledge of his activity. Today he is the most, hated man in the world. Meet CIA Director, Richard Melms.

By DR. JULIUS MADER

What actually does the world know about CIA-Chief R. M. Helius? Anyone perusing the 12,378 biographies in "Who's Who in American Politics" (New York/London) must resign himself to the fact that no mention is made of Mr. Helms, while the reference book "Who is Who in America" spares no more for him than a patiry 12 lines The following documentation gives so far more for him than a pality 12 lines the following.

the most detailed characterization of Richard M. Helms.

the most detailed characterization of Richard M. Helms.

was the case only remained furthermore, kept cently in the "Home-Heins furth

Richard years McGarrah Helms has been at the he m of the CIA with its employees 52.359 and tens of thousands of agents of After baving spent his various nationali, youth in South Orange, ties.

His official title is Director of Central Intelligence - DCI; his office is the CIA Centre in Langley/ Virginia, 7th floor, Following that he worked room number 75, .706; his last residence: 3901 Fessen. den Street, Washing. ton DC20016.

At Helms' official appointment, the US President His pre-war experience as maintained CIA-Direct TIMES advertising manmaintained CIA-Directors to be just as unsung as invaluable. Helms' official yearly salary is after all 30,000 dollars, though this is no more than a trifle compared with the sums he is larded with by the big besses' lobby.

Then who is that man whom the representatives of the US-establishment, those tycoons of Wall-Street, have picked for one of the most infuential functions in the entire imperialis; camp?

Needless to say that Heims' grandparents on his father's side were German migrants. His father Heiman Helms was a manager of the Aluminium Company of springs, Virginia.
America (Alcop), the Helms Resetivates Nazi trust which holds a keyposition in the North-American military-industrial complex and has many international connexions.

a fashionable suburb of New York City, he at-tended high-school in Freiburg (Western Germany) and an exclusive college in Switzerland. At 22 he graduated from the William's College in . the USA.

for 2 years as a news-paper reporter in Hit-ler's Germany, 4 years on the editorial manler's Germanyon the editorial management of the TIMES of Indianapolis and the following 28 years in various US inteligence as then military meaning them military processes of Strategic Services (OSS). In 1945, side by side with the OSS-Resident for Europe, Al en Weish busy,

TIMES advertising manager for the entire ter-ritory of the USA helped him to expand his private contacts with big business

Meanwhile, Helms has become a servant of the US monopoly groups, a man who as to unscru-pulousness has hardly ever been cutdone by anyone clse.

This goes a long way to explain why he never fails to make the reg-ular tour dinorizon in person before the Bus-iness Council of Top Corporation Executives, cently in the "Home-tstead-Hotel" in Hotsprings, Virginia.

Intelligence

Heims was one of Hitler's admirers, as manifested in this reports as United Press Correspondent on the 1936 Berlin Olympic Games and above all in the interview with Hitler in 1937 when b

Helms was only 24.
In 1942, Helms enlisted in the US-Navy as a lieutenant and left in 1946 as a lieutenant commander. On account of his linguistic pro-wess he held, during the Second World War, several office jobs, was promoted from time to time and, eventually in Europe, Alen Weishy Dulles, he was busy, reactivating Hitler's military intelligence service, headed by Lieut-General Reinhard Geaintelligence len with a view to put These is no institution in new life into the anti-time USA entitled to socialist Cold War His theacre of operation was then West Berlin, Frankfort/Main and Munich. Since those days Helms has served five US Presidents in poisoning the inter-national atmosphere. In 1917, he was a tached to the organisational staff. of CiA and was from the very beginning, in -

called back espionage capitalist Approved For Release 2001/03/04 CA-RDP80-01601R001200460001-1 dealing with secret, so. dustrial managers as offer but the immediately incriminated indivi-

Propaganda Political -Section for ideological subcersion. one of the Helms was initiators of the National Security Council's confidential directive NSC 10/2 which allows the CIA to engage in socalled special operations provided they are "larried" and kept suffi-ciently from the public, so that the US-administration is able to issue a denial at any time.

By 1962, Helms had climbed up the ladder into the 3rd position of CIAhistorichy and became director of the subversing Planning Section. In 1965, President Johnson appointed him deputy director and in mid-1966 director of CIA. In this function, Helais is also chairman of the U.S. Intelligence - Board into which flow all the nine US civil and military inadligence branches.

do institution

the USA entitled exercise any effective control over Helms or his CIA, neither the Senate nor the House of Representatives. following fact does not lack a good deal of carriesm: When in 1967 hasther CIA-scandal stark to high heaven, the US-President felt compelled to open an

continued

BEST COPY Available